The Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society was organized November 12, 1968, for the purpose of assisting its members in their genealogical research; of creating interest in genealogical and historical records; and of the collecting and preserving of these, depositing as many of them as possible in libraries and archives.

EDITORIAL POLICY: Neither the Editor, nor the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society and/or members of the Editorial Staff, assumes any responsibility for error of fact, or opinion, expressed by the contributors. It is the desire and intent of the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society to publish only reliable genealogical source material. All members are invited to send in their church, cemetery, family Bible records, and any other genealogical materials for publication.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

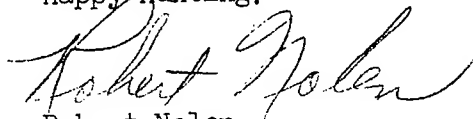

Dear Members:

The beginning of another year is upon us. Let us be thankful for what has been accomplished in the two short years since our society was organized and look forward to bigger and better things as we begin 1971. May each member set for himself a worthy goal and one that will be a challenge to him as an individual and helpful to our society.

May I take this opportunity to thank each of you for your confidence in electing me as your president for the new year. I am new in the society and will need the help of each of you. I know I can count on you and your previous experience. You can mean much to the organization as we work together. I will welcome any suggestions you may have to offer.

In the short time I have been privileged to belong to this organization it has been most helpful to me as a beginner in genealogical work. May each of you have a rewarding year as you continue with your "Ancestor Searching".

Happy Hunting!

Robert Nolen,
President

SEPTEMBER 1970 PROGRAM MEETING:

Mrs. H. F. May, well known historian and genealogy teacher, brought an interesting and unusual program to the society for its September meeting. Mrs. May's program was in the form of a "Genealogy Quiz", and was participated in by the entire group.

Her opening question was "What records do you consider most valuable for research?" There were varied answers given including census, court, Bible and cemetery records. Her next question was "What do you consider your most valuable find?" Some of the answers were quite delightful, informative and made history seem to come alive.

OCTOBER 1970 PROGRAM MEETING:

Miss Louise Sublette of Martin, Tennessee, was an interesting and enthusiastic speaker for the October meeting of the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society. Her subject was "Research in Virginia". Miss Sublette has made several trips to that state doing family line research.

She introduced her talk by telling why many people are interested in research in Virginia, saying that many of us have deep roots there as our ancestors first migrated there. She also told of the interesting history of Virginia, dating from the first settlement in Jamestown in 1607, where only 38 people survived the rigors of the first winter, through the period of the War Between the States.

She told of her visit to the Virginia State Library and Archives, saying that all census records are available except 1790 which were burned, but the taxpayer lists of that date help to duplicate the burned records. Records of patents of land, which were prior to land grants, date back to 1623.

Particularly interesting was her account of church records which include baptismal records, and almost all of which are preserved. She said that her most exciting find was a register of the Church of La Patente de Soho 1689-1782 London which is registered in the Archives Department in Richmond, and in which she found the entry that confirmed the place of birth of her original ancestor, Abraham Soblet, and the maiden name of his wife.

Miss Sublette displayed photostatic copies of a will and inventory and a letter of one of her forefathers which were of both personal and historic interest. She suggested a number of books to be used in research. An informal discussion with questions was enjoyed at the conclusion of her talk.

NOVEMBER 1970 PROGRAM MEETING:

Roy E. Staples, native New Englander and enthusiastic genealogist, was the interesting speaker for the society's November meeting. Mr. Staples used as his subject, "Interesting Genealogies of New England." He supplemented his talk by telling of historic churches in the North and South.

Mr. Staples has traced three of his family lines, which include the Parkers, Staples and Whites, each back to the early sixteen hundreds, and has a complete 1790 census record of all the New England States. Asked how he was able to secure these genealogies, each of which runs 11 and 12 generations, he said that he had gathered vital statistic records from 32 towns near where his family settled and where he was reared in Wakefield, Mass.

Historic churches of which he told included St. Michael and St. Phillips's Episcopal Churches in Charleston, S. C., First Presbyterian in Augusta, Ga., St. John's Episcopal Church in New Hampshire and Churches in Williamsburg, Va.

He interspersed his talk with various incidents, both humorous and poignant that had happened during the years.

(The above accounts of the September, October and November program meetings were taken from THE JACKSON SUN, the local newspaper in Jackson, Tenn. The Society's News Reported is Mrs. Charles Sevier.)

The following notification to the next of kin of a Yankee soldier's death in battle was also submitted by John David Myers - 238 Jackson St. - Jackson, Tennessee 38301. The soldier who was killed was Timothy Crunk, son of Abner Crunk (both recipients of the above letter).

Camp on the Battlefield
December 4th 1863

Dear Sir

The painful duty of informing you of the death of your Son Timothy has devolved on me. He was killed in the last charge made by the Rebels on the Second Inst.

We were in retreat at the time and he had fired the last cartridge at the enemy, and had halted to get cartridges from James Moore when the death messenger entered his breast killing _____ instantly.

He had performed his duty to his country and now rests in a Patriots grave.

How heartrending this intelligence will be to an affectionate Parent I well know and none more deeply Sympathizes with you than myself. But let us hope that though he has fallen a Sacrifice to the mad ambition of the Rebels Faction, that we may meet in another world where wars are no more and Sorrow cannot come, and rest assured that many a comrade yet lives to avenge his death.

After we had recovered the ground we took his remains and interred as decently as circumstances would admit, and carved the initials of his name on a Stone which we set up at his head. His gun, overcoat, shirt and drawers are in my possession and I wish to know how to dispose of them.

I cut from his head a lock of hair, to send to his broken hearted mother which I know she will regard as a treasure of much (?) _____.

In conclusion allow me to assure you of my warmest Sympathies in your distress.

I remain your Friend
/s/ John M. Brown

This completes The Marriage Records taken from Book No. 2 (the first marriage book) of Weakley County, Tennessee. The records have already been copied from Marriage Book No. 3, Nov. 5, 1846 - June 3, 1854 and will be published in succeeding issues of FAMILY FINDINGS.

BRIEF SKETCH OF OBEDIAH JOHNSON of Madison County, Tennessee, submitted by Don Brown, 2053 Berdan Ave., Toledo, Ohio 43613, who is a descendant of Obediah Johnson through the Hogan line.

OBEDIAH JOHNSON was born about 1802 somewhere in North Carolina, possibly in Montgomery County, where he was listed in the 1830 census. The names of his parents are unknown, but it seems possible that either his father or an ancestor was named Nedom (Needham) Johnson. It is certain that Obediah had a brother named Silas. Both of the brothers moved to Madison County, Tennessee, Obediah probably moving there in the mid-1830's.

Obediah was married in North Carolina, and his older children were born there. It appears that Obediah might have been married twice, probably both times in North Carolina. The mother of at least most of his children was Nancy, born about 1810 in North Carolina. She died in Madison County, Tennessee, in the 1860's or the 1870's.

In Madison County, Tennessee, Obediah owned land on the north fork of the south fork of the Forked Deer River, in the vicinity of the Pinson and Cotton-grove Roads, in the old Civil District #17, about five miles west of Beech Bluff. Today this land is on Ranger Road, a cross road between Beech Bluff Road and Mifflin Road. Obediah purchased this land, estimated in the deed at 375 acres, and mostly on the south side of the river, in November, 1871. Between 1873 and 1881 he had sold it, some of it to his sons.

Obediah was the father of at least ten children: Annis, born about 1826, who was married to William H. Nobles; Jane ("Jennie"), born about 1828, who was married to Caswell Hogan; Emily, born about 1834, who was married to Dempsey Ussery; John, born about 1837; Sarah M. born about 1841, who was married to Nedom Johnson; Adaline, born about 1842, who was married to a man with the surname of Teddleton; Henry Clay, born July 26, 1844-1845, who had four wives: Ann Elizabeth Kirby, Sarah Elizabeth Williamson, Cindy Curtis, and Sarah ("Fannie") Johnson; Martin, born about 1846, who was married to Margaret Johnson; Isaac T., born about 1848, who was married to Mary F. Alexander; and Obediah, born January 22, 1852-53, who was married to Caroline Crowder. Annis, Jane, and Emily were born in North Carolina, and the other children were born in Tennessee. There were possibly two older sons in the age group of Annis and Jane.

Obediah was still living in Madison County at the time of the 1880 census, living then in the home of his widowed daughter, Sarah. The census for that year states that both of his parents were born in North Carolina. Obediah probably died in Madison County in the 1880's, leaving no will probably because he had disposed of his property before his death. He is buried without an inscribed tombstone, probably in Mason Grove Cemetery in Madison County. Nancy is probably buried there too. Obediah was often known as "Obe" or "Obey".

THE NIGHT RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, WAS BURNED

The following is a letter written by Emmie Sublett to her friend Emilie telling of her experience "The Night Richmond, Virginia, was burned by the Yankees", April 3, 1865. This letter is considered by many historians to be one of the best "eye witness" accounts. This material, submitted by Miss Louise Sublett, P. O. Box 557, Martin, Tennessee 38237.

Waverly Place, April 29th, 1865

My darling Emilie-

The last letter you wrote you described the Yankee raid in your neighborhood, but where shall I begin to tell you, I have so much to tell you I don't know what to say first. I never dreamed of the Yankees getting to Richmond sure enough, but the wretches are here. I am afraid Yankees will be an unpleasant subject to your ear, but I must tell you all about the horrible "Blue Devils" as we call them.

The greatest excitement prevailed here I ever saw, the streets were crowded with citizens and clerks, young and old, trying to get away if possible. We expected the Yanks would treat us so much worse than they really did. Sunday night we didn't go to bed at all, but staid down in the parlor until five o'clock Monday morning. Our troops were passing through the city the whole night, and our friends dropping in one by one to bid us farewell; perhaps many of them forever.

Brother left about dark, and Mr. Mc. didn't leave this house until about three o'clock, said he was determined to see all that was possible before he left. The fire commenced about three or little earlier, and raged furiously; you know the warehouses and some of the public buildings were set on fire, from which the others caught. About four o'clock we heard a slight explosion, which startled us a little, but not enough to frighten us. Then just at five we heard another which was so very loud, and seemed so near, that we thought it safest to put out the lights in the lower part of the house & go up stairs, but we didn't undress, though we tried to sleep which was out of the question; at half after six all of us lying down but wide awake, there came another explosion which was perfectly awful & lasted I suppose about two minutes: it was the powder magazine, very near the poor house. I thought this house would be jarred to the ground: it broke the windows and I declare it sounded as if a shell had bursted in the house; three times as loud as any thunder I ever heard in my life. Lizzie, Virginia, Manie, Maggie and Julia came running in our room trembling like aspin leaves, and screaming at the pitch of their voices. I never could have imagined any thing so frightful and awful to hear. As Mama says "ears never heard such a noise before". Although it was so frightful I couldn't help laughing at Lizzie to save my life. You know she is the most excitable poor creature I ever saw. She ran in our room, raised the window, opened the blinds and leaped right out, & I really think if the noise hadn't ceased she would have gone right over the porch railings. Jane had been sick for a week or two, and she came running out in her night clothes to see what was the matter, and said she knew if the Yanks didn't kill Lizzie she would kill herself. This was all early Monday morning. Please excuse such writing, Emilie, but I can't say it fast enough to save my life. We had hid all our jewelry Sunday night in the parlor; such sewing of bags, pincushions, pads and every conceivable way of hiding things you never heard of in your life. Vic Sublett happened to be here with us, and it was about two weeks before she could get home; she hid her watch in a ball of cotton and commenced to make a sock to make it look as natural as possible. I took ten gold dollars and covered them as green buttons & sewed them on my green mouselain.

Monday was the longest day I ever spent in my life; it was almost intolerable. I think about nine tenths of the negroes of the city, went down town early Monday morning, broke open the stores and stole every thing that could be found. They would come by here with two or three pieces of cloth each, and every thing else you could think of. The shells in the Laboratory were exploding the whole day; the fire raging on Main, Cary and Franklin Streets. Every thing was burned from Main to the river between 8 and 15 streets. I have been all over the ruins and never saw such destruction in my life; (I saw a drunken Yankee fall in the basin too one day, but he wasn't drowned.) The smoke from the fire was so dense as to prevent the sun from shining; it was naturally the brightest day I ever saw, but the smoke made the sun shed a dark red light over the whole. It seemed to be ashamed to gaze on such a scene!

The Yanks came in at fifteen minutes before eight A.M. and first of all placed the horrible stars and stripes (which seemed to me to be so many bloody gashes) over our beloved capital. O, the horrible wretches! I can't think of a name dreadful enough to call them. It makes us fifty times more southern in our feelings to have them here; though they have behaved very well indeed, no private property has been touched, and no insults have been offered to any of the citizens. They say they can't get any thing to report the Richmond girls for, to save their lives. They all behave with such perfect dignity and coolness, always go out thickly veiled and never notice the Yanks in the least. I've nearly broken my neck holding such a high head, never condescending to look at one when I meet him. Our paroled prisoners are coming slowly in; poor fellows! they are all so sad! Gen. Lee is completely crushed; I never saw any thing like it. I do feel so sorry for him.

The Yanks are very lenient to us at present, but they are drawing the ropes tighter and tighter every day. I believe there is some villainy at the bottom of it all. I am so sorry Lincoln was killed I don't know what in the world to do, because I believe the whole South will be punished for it. Johnson will be such an awful president; he is a perfect old tyrant. You know Lincoln came to Richmond Tuesday the 4th and was paraded through the streets in a vehicle very much like an ambulance, only a little nicer, but very common indeed, attended by a body guard of about one hundred horsemen and dashed through the streets like the horses were wild. The "monkey show" came right by here, but we wouldn't let them see us looking at them, so we ran in the parlor and peeped at them. I reckon Johns/t/on has certainly surrendered. Today's paper says so and they have been firing salutes and marching the soldiers over the streets all day yesterday and today.

Please write whenever you see a chance, and I will certainly do the same. Every body sends all the love this letter will hold...Good bye. I remain as ever your sincere and devoted...

Agnes (Emmie Sublett)

Tell any one any thing you choose in this letter, but it is for your eyes alone.

WILL OF LINDSEY SANDERS

McNAIRY COUNTY, TENNESSEE RECORDS

MINUTE DOCKET - 4 Jan 1858 - 5 Feb 1866

Pages 755-757

Prob. Monday - 4 Dec 1865

We Lindsey Sanders and Martha Ann Sanders formerly Landreth, by birth Lindsey of Chatham County N C and Martha Ann of Guilford County N C having entered into Marriage Covenant on the 3rd day of February A D 1831 in the County of McNairy and State of Tennessee where we have remained ever since. And having disposing minds and desiring that our offsprings and those by adoption if any Shall enjoy the means with which we are blessed in the way and manner and under the circumstances herein after prescribed. Therefore we have entered into Solemn Covenant with each other and pledge ourselves that the surviving one shall abide by and do all in their power to carry out the terms of this Covenant in good faith. In as much as we have accumulated our meanes under the auspices of High Heaven and (tho?) have been protected by the laws of our county Therefore we covenant and agree that no avowed Atheist Dieist or Infidel or dis-Unionist or Secessionist which is the same as dis-unionist Shall be a beneficiary to our estate. We believe that any rational intelligent so low and depraved in morals So much under the domination of Satan as to controvert the natural and Spiritual evidences of a Supreme Ruler and Creator or that he has revealed his will to Man or the divinity of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is unworthy of any participancy of the good things of this World with which God fearing Men and Women have been blessed. And that any American Citizen so low and depraved in patriotism so wanton in fidelity to our Glorious Union as to desire dissolution or a Seperation of even one of the States from her Sisters is not only wholly unworthy of enjoying the good things of the County procured by the industry and economy of National Union loving Men and Women in common with them but should be Scouted and driven from the American Soil to that town where a large portion of their forefathers were driven after the close of the war of the Revolution (To wit) Nova Scotia.

We further Covenant and agree that in case one of us should survive the other the Surviving one Shall remain in the possession of all the effects we may be possessed of at the time of such seperation and the unmarried portion of the family to remain with the surviving parent the debts to be paid if any and the estate to be controlled and managed for the best interest of the family. The rents arising from our houses and lots in Purdy together with the rents of our farms to be used for the benefit of our family their support and education. And if any of our children desire to engage in a profession that is laudable so much of their portion of our estate as shall be necessary to fit them for said profession shall be applied for said purpose. The amount of cash on hand and out standing debts shall be controlled by the Surviving one after Such Seperation together with the amount of stock and the proceeds of the same invested with the Rev Dr Jacob Capps of Moniteau County Missouri in the January of 1856 in the purchase and sale of drugs medicines stock etc amounting to Seven hundred Sixty Seven dollars and 8 cents. If any of the children take to themselves a companion that is not excluded from a participation in our Estate on account of their moral or polit(ic)al sins or any after they shall arrive at the age of twenty one years their portion of said Estate the surviving parent if one is surviving shall select two or more persons to who shall lay off to them their portion of the Estate and should there be no Surviving parent in that case a majority of the heirs shall agree on three or more commissioners or referees to lay off and apportion to each and every heir that has not received their share their equitable portion of said Estate. Guardians shall be appointed to superintend the interests of the minors if any at the death of the last Surviving parent. In each and every case of the division of said Estate among the heirs or the adjustment of any controversy by them in regard to their interest in the estate it shall be done by referees according to the Strict and legal rules of the Selecting and adjustment of business by referees. And in no case shall the heirs litigate or seek an adjustment of any controversy or interest in said estate in any of the courts of the country a resort to them by any of the heirs for an interest in the estate Shall operate as forfeiture in said interest which shall inure to the rest of the heirs who shall share equally share alike of it. And should any of our children be so inconsiderate or unfortunate as to intermarry with an individual excluded by the terms of this covenant on account of their moral or political sins or both and the charge is preferred by any of the unoffending portion of the heirs and it controverted by the accused each party shall have the right to select three good citizens of McNairy County who shall be sound on these points of sacred and political Theology also native Americans the three men so selected by the parties shall form a jury of six who shall here evidence under oath who shall detail under oath and decide as to the guilt or innocence of the accused and Should the jury fail to agree in their verdict another jury shall be selected according to the rules herein laid down and a second trial be had and so on until the guilt or innocence of the accused is fully established. And in every case when an heir of this estate is found guilty by a jury aforesaid in that case their crime or crimes shall operate as a disenheritance of our estate an_owing to the terms of this covenant and their portion shall be devised equally between the unoffending portion of the heirs. Should any of them die after their portion of the estate is laid off there leaving no issue their portion Shall be equally divided between the Surviving heirs according to law, that is according to the rules of law. The Surviving parent is to remain in the possession of the house we now occupy with all the farm now in cultivation and under fence lying South of Grahams Creek and never to be deprived of any privelege of timber or otherwise of any lands we now own.

We further and lastly Covenant and agree that if one of us Should be seperated by death from the other and the surviving one Should intermarry with another person that such marriage shall operate as forfeiture to their estate of estate and all the privileages herein granted shall be enjoyed by our children whose wrights are not to be interfered with by any foreign interest. We desire that our children Should with us enjoy our estate and that no foreign interest is to be permitted to come in to prejudice Such enjoyment.

Dear Friend

I recieved your letter this morning and hast to reply these lines leaves me in good health the connection are all in fine health in fact we have no Sick-ness in our County. Crops are not good in this County owing to the drouth We have only had two Small Showers in the last four months but not withstanding we will make plenty of evry thing to eat Crops are nearly all gathered in this sec-tion and we have avridged from 30 to 35 bushels of corn and from one thousand to 16 hundred lbs of cotton per Acre and James We have made this without any rain with the exception of about three showers Now James I will not brag nor boas on Texas but let me tell you the truth I know one piece of corn in this County that it never had rain enough to wet the ground 1/1 an inch deep from the time it was planted untill it was gathered and it made 30 bushels per acre Now perhaps Some will doubt this in all probability Dr. Estman may if he does pleas ask him for me if he ever hird a cow grunt-- Corn is worth from 40 cents to 50 pe bushel Wheat 1.00 pe bushel land is rising Some there is a good meany land hunters coming in all ready and (well pleased?)

I have nothing of importance to give you only the youngsters are getting in the Spirit of marrying Several have married lately and among the balance Francis Johnson was married the 25th of this month. We had a great time they danced two days and nights She married Thomas (Towny or Lowy?) a fine young man all was well pleased with the mach and as for my part I am in a big way of Courting and I cant tell how soon I may marry but I think Soon

I have bin Setting mity close to my Chicken Pie girl She was on of Fran-cis Waters

(Prier?) came up in the Summer and Spent Some month with us he Seamed to be well pleased I am Selling Groceries in Paris for M. M. Grant but I cant tell what I will do next year Brother James is also Selling Groceries for Alex-ander in this place

As I have nothing to interest you I will close give my respects to all the good people write to me Soon and I will do the Same

Respectfully yours
